Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 3/30/2004 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Specification

2. Regarding CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS Section of the specification, the Applicant must identify the related application by the application number (consisting of the series code and serial number) or international application number and international filing date and indicating the relationship of the applications. See 37 CFR 1.78 and MPEP § 201.11.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 1 is objected to because the claim is difficult to understand due to the use of confusing language. Appropriate correction is required. The prior art rejection based on the Examiner's best understanding.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takasaki et al. U.S. Patent No. 4,969,201.

Regarding claim 1, Takasaki teaches a method of recognizing shapes (recognizing arcuate or circular arc segment) (abstract, lines 1-3) from a scribble (drawing data) (column 1, lines 13-14), the method comprising the steps of:

a. Identifying one or more important points in a scribble (structured points) (column 2, lines 20-25);

b. determining whether said scribble resembles a closed figure (FIG. 3);

c. determining whether said scribble resembles a figured with more straight sides than curved sides (three consecutives polygon-line with distances d1 and d2 between a virtual circle/curved side resembles a figured with more straight sides than curved sides) (column 5, lines 65-68 to column 6, lines 1-5);

d. recognizing said scribble as a line segment if said scribble has exactly two important points (segment end points S1 and S2) (column 4, lines 35-40);

e. recognizing said scribble as a straight curve if said scribble has more than two important points (polygon-line structuring points P1, P2, and P3) (column 4, lines 50-55) and said scribble has more straight sides than curved sides (three consecutives polygon-line with distances d1 and d2 between a virtual circle/curved side resembles a figured with more straight sides than curved sides) (column 5, lines 65-68 to column 6, lines 1-5) and said scribble is not a close figure (distance between two end points is not closed figure) (FIG. 2A, element 104);

f. recognizing said scribble as a spline (FIG. 5) if said scribble has more than two important points (polygon-line structuring points P1, P2, and P3) (column 4, lines 50-55) and said scribble does not have more straight sides than curved sides (FIG. 5) and said scribble is not a closed figure (arc distance between two points is not a closed figured) (FIG. 5);

g. Recognizing said scribble as a closed plane figure (FIG. 5) if said scribble has more than two important points (polygon-line structuring points P1, P2, and P3) (column 4, lines 50-55) and said scribble has more straight sides than curved sides (three consecutives polygon-line with distances d1 and d2 between a virtual circle/curved side resembles a figured with more straight sides than curved sides) (column 5, lines 65-68 to column 6, lines 1-5) and said scribble is a closed figured (the distance that connects 3 vertex, 3 point is closed figured);

h. recognizing said scribble as a closed spline (FIG. 5) if said scribble has more than two important points (polygon-line structuring points P1, P2, and P3) (column 4, lines 50-55) and said scribble does not have more straight sides than curved sides (FIG. 5) and said scribble is a closed figure (the distance that connects 3 vertex, 3 point is closed figured).
